Our clients operate in an increasingly international, digitalised and interconnected business environment. As a result, the requirements placed on legal advice are also changing. In particular, clients need in-depth specialist expertise, additional firepower, strong local roots and seamless cross-border advice from a single source.

To continue meeting these expectations in the future, we are taking the next step:

On 1 October 2026, BGPartner will join act legal and will operate under the name act legal Switzerland.
